Joseph Flannery, MS, MHA. will be a featured speaker once again. Joe will discuss general findings from JC surveys, performance improvement processes, indicator monitoring, and experiences with the unannounced inspections as well as the 2012 JC Standards. This class is especially relevant to anyone who may experience a Joint Commission inspection in the next 12 months. Joe has years of survey experiences and will enhance his formal presentation with anecdotes from his survey experiences.

To make it more convenient for those driving to Wintergreen on Friday morning, we will begin registrations at 8:30 AM. The session will begin at 9:00 AM and conclude at approx. 4:00 PM

Room Cancellations within 14 days are subject to a fee of one night's lodging.
The Room rates are valid one day before and one day after the event.
